

Kim K. Reynolds
GOVERNOR

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

Adam Gregg
LT. GOVERNOR

Application for Special Restoration of Citizenship Rights (Firearms) and Pardon

General Information:

The Governor has the authority to grant executive clemency for all offenses except treason and cases of impeachment, subject to such regulations as may be provided by law. Except for the restoration of the right to vote and hold public office, the Governor does not grant executive clemency for any conviction received in federal court or the court of another state.

Pardon: A full and unconditional Pardon restores all citizenship rights (right to vote, hold public office and firearm rights) and relieves an offender from further punishment imposed by reason of a conviction of a criminal offense. Although a Pardon will be placed on your criminal background check, it will not erase or expunge the record of conviction.

Special Restoration of Citizenship (Firearm Rights): A Special Restoration of Citizenship (Firearm Rights) restores the right of a person who has been convicted of a non-forcible felony to possess a firearm under state law.

Eligibility:

1. Timing: It is the general policy of the Office of the Governor to require at least five (5) years to pass from the date that a person is discharged from their sentence before applying for a Special Restoration of Citizenship (firearm rights) and at least ten (10) years to pass from the date of discharge to apply for a Pardon.
2. Convictions in an Iowa State Court: Individuals may apply for a Special Restoration of Citizenship (Firearms) or a Pardon to the Office of the Governor of Iowa.
3. Conviction in Federal Court: Individuals shall not apply for a Special Restoration of Citizenship (Firearms) or a Pardon to the Office of the Governor of Iowa if they were convicted in federal court. Instead, individuals may apply to the U.S. Pardon Attorney.
4. Convictions outside of Iowa: Individuals convicted of a crime outside of the State of Iowa shall not apply for a Pardon Special Restoration of Citizenship (firearm rights) to the Governor of Iowa if they were convicted in an out-of-state court. Instead, the individual may apply to the Governor of the State that the individual received their conviction or to the U.S. Pardon Attorney if it was a federal crime.
5. Misdemeanor convictions in Iowa for Domestic Abuse: Federal law prohibits individuals convicted of misdemeanor domestic abuse from having their firearm rights restored by the Governor.

Process:

This application is for a Pardon or Special Restoration of Citizenship (firearm rights) only. If you seek to (1) apply to have your voting rights restored, you must fill out the one-page Streamlined Application for Restoration of Citizenship Rights (Right to Vote and Hold Public Office) or (2) apply for a commutation, you must fill out the Commutation of Life Sentence Application. The process may take up to approximately two (2) years from the date you submit your application to the Board of Parole. Each application is reviewed. Then, the application may be forwarded to the Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI) for a full review. Additionally, you and other individuals you know may be contacted to verify the information provided is correct. The Iowa Board of Parole reviews your application and submits a nonbinding recommendation to the Governor. Finally, the Governor reviews the completed applications and the Iowa Board of Parole's recommendation and then notifies each applicant of the Governor's final decision.
